

Employment Status: Part-Time

Employers were also asked to indicate what percentage of their employees for a particular occupation worked part-time. About 10 percent of those who responded to the question indicated that between 75 and 100 percent of their employees in a particular occupation worked part-time, 4.5 percent said it was between 50 and 74 percent, 3.2 percent said between 25-49 percent, and an overwhelming 82.6 percent said the percentage working part-time was less than 25. (Table 6/Figure 2)
